Helsinki – Oodi, The Central Library & Surroundings Tour
Pre Tour 7.11.2026

WELCOME TO HELSINKI

Why is there a statue of a Russian tsar in the middle of The Senate Square? How deep is The Baltic Sea? Is Oodi, the new central library, going to become the most popular sight in Helsinki? Answers to these questions and many more will be revealed on walking tours organized by The Helsinki Guides Association (www.helsinkiguides.fi). Come and join us and discover Helsinki with a professional guide!

Starting point: Kiasma – contemporary art museum
Address: Mannerheiminaukio 2, 00100 Helsinki
Time: 10.00 – 13.00 (approx.. 1,5 hour walk + lunch)
Tour ends at Hotel Arthur (Vuorikatu 19, 00100 Helsinki)

Oodi the central library and the surrounding areas

Let's get a glimpse into the best new library in the world! Why was it built and what can one do there? We'll also walk along the beautiful Töölönlahti Bay and will acquaint ourselves with various aspects of the fascinating residential area of Töölö. We shall finish with a lunch in the city centre.

Recommended Warm winter clothing, including warm winter jacket, warm shoes, hat, gloves, scarf.
